

Aurora Credit Union's members approve proposed merger with Educators Credit Union

Aurora Credit Union's members approved the proposed merger of Aurora Credit Union with Educators Credit Union at the Special Membership Meeting on May 8, 2018.

The outcome of the vote was 122 members in favor of the merger and 18 members opposed.

The approved merger by the membership is subject to final approval by the regulators; their approval is anticipated in late May to early June.

The current services that Aurora Credit Union provides will continue until the proposed effective date of the merger (January 2019). Until January, members should continue to use the Aurora Credit Union's two branches.

You will receive more information in the mail in the coming months on how your account will transfer over and how to access Educators services like online and mobile banking.
